

PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

West Kootenay Inter-Community Business Licence Bylaw No.2648, 2018

A Public Hearing will take place on Tuesday, February 13, 2018 to give all persons, who deem they have an interest in the proposed West Kootenay Inter-Community Business Licence Bylaw No. 2648, 2018 an opportunity to be heard.

The purpose of the bylaw is to make obtaining a business licence easier and less costly for businesses that provide services in the participating communities which currently include the City of Rosland, Castlegar, Nelson, Creston and Kaslo. The cost of the Licence will be $85.00 in addition to obtaining a standard business licence of the business's home-based municipality. A West Kootenay Inter-Community Business Licence could be purchased at any participating municipality.

A copy of the proposed bylaw may be inspected between the hours of 9:00 am and 4:00 pm on regular working days until February 13, 2018 at the City of Rosland Municipal Offices, located at 1899 Columbia Avenue, Rosland, BC and/or on the City's website at: www.rossland.ca.

Comments from citizens concerning the content of the draft bylaw are welcome. For further information on proposed Bylaw No. 2648, 2018 please contact the undersigned.

Shirley Rhodes,
Deputy Corporate Officer
City of Rosland
