

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS
Janitorial Services – City of Rossland
2019-2021 term contract (with possible extension)

Introduction

The purpose of this Request for Proposal is to invite interested parties that currently perform and/or have experience in building maintenance services to submit application to the City of Rossland to provide general janitorial services for the Miners’ Hall and Youth Action Network (YAN) building on an as-needed basis from January 2020 to December 2021. Should the contractor’s performance meet the City’s expectations, consideration will be given for an additional 2-year extension (January 2022 – December 2023). Any interested proponent may request a brief site tour of the facility in order to gather additional information from what’s contained in the Request for Proposals document. Site tours must be pre-booked by contacting the City of Rossland at recreation.manager@rossland.ca.
